BladeRunners

Bladerunners is a program that creates valuable employment opportunities

It's for youth that face obstacles to employment

BladeRunners

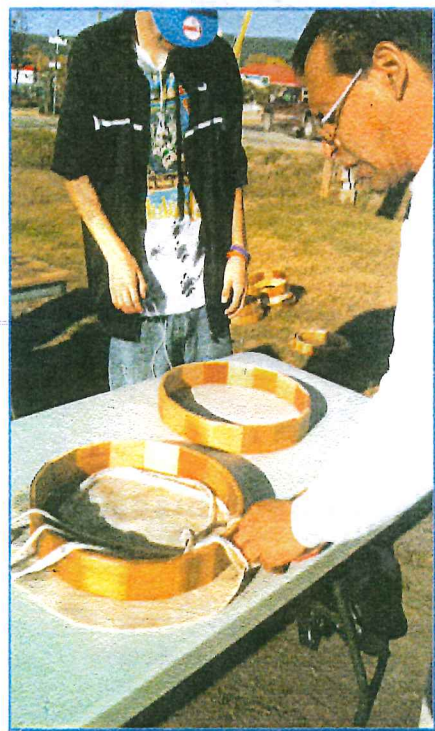

BladeRunners was established in 1994 in Vancouver the program was created to provide youth with an opportunity to gain skills in construction trades it had the average of 300 trainees per year and almost 90 per cent of the participants successfully moved into full time employment.

BladeRunners today provides the necessary skills to youth of the age 17-30 that have been out of school for a couple of years and are currently unemployed. It creates valuable employment opportunities and an excellent program that focuses on individual successes and independence. It links participants with employers and provides employment training.

The Youth will:

- ◆ Participate in Pre-employment Training
- ◆ Receive skill enhancement certificates such as, First Aid, Fall protection, and other related training certificates to make you employable
- ◆ Receive career development support and guidance
- ◆ Receive job coaching, tutoring and mentorship
- ◆ Be given an opportunity to experience trades in training

Youth will also learn

Cultural training in activities such as drum making, carrier language, history by elders stories and sometimes outside experience at a cultural camp site.

They may also experience fun activities such as Kewap Adventure which is learning about horses and how to ride them, as well as some walks, or hiking.
